3rd Annual PIG-N-PLUCK benefiting Charleston Habitat for Humanity

Lowcountry folks are known for loving good barbeque, dancing to bluegrass tunes, and generously lending a neighborly hand. Sunday, June 28th, Charleston Habitat for Humanity wants to combine all three into one for the 3rd Annual Pig-N-Pluck at Bowens Island.

Charleston Habitat for Humanity is raising funds for a new construction truck to help in the process of building affordable homes for working families in the cities of Charleston and North Charleston, offering a hand-up not a hand-out.

Join Charleston Habitat for Humanity at Bowens Island on June 28th from 3-8pm for a day of barbeque, bluegrass and fun.

Tickets for the 3rd Annual Pig-N-Pluck are $25.00. Ticket price includes barbeque from Home Team BBQ, live bluegrass from the Blue Stone Ramblers and three drink tickets. Additional drink tickets can be purchased for $2.00. Tickets are $12.00 per person- ages 13-20. Children 12 and under are free. Baby-sitting and fun activities for kids provided by Sweet Peas Nanny Agency.

Tickets are available by calling 722-7145, or emailing Kayla@charlestonhabitat.org or you can stop by the Charleston Habitat for Humanity ReStore at 731 Meeting Street to purchase your tickets. Tickets can be purchased at Bowens Island on June 28th. All proceeds will go toward a new construction truck. Purchase your tickets early!

Charleston Habitat for Humanity provides affordable homeownership opportunities for working families of low to moderate income in the cities of Charleston and North Charleston. Families can qualify for either new homes or home repair programs. Financial and in-kind support comes from homeowner principal mortgage payments; contributions from individuals, businesses, grants and foundations; sales from the Charleston Habitat for Humanity ReStore; and volunteer labor on our construction site.
