Benefit Auction Announced for the Charleston Habitat for Humanity ReStore

A benefit auction with over 150 lots will be held at Page's Thieves Market located on 1460 Ben Sawyer Blvd in Mt. Pleasant on Saturday, August 11th at 10am. The auction will be open to the public and all proceeds benefit the Charleston Habitat for Humanity ReStore. This auction includes an antique mahogany sleigh bed, an ornate pier mirror, and an antique mahogany wardrobe. The auction will also feature sterling, crystal, artwork and more!

Jon Skelton, the Charleston Habitat for Humanity ReStore Manager states, "We are very excited about this auction. Not only will attendees have a good time, but there will also be something for everyone. Our goal is to raise $15,000 and we hope the community will come out to join us!"

Donations of antique or collectibles are being accepted through Saturday, August 4th. Please call 579-0777 for pick-up of your donation or for additional information.

Charleston Habitat for Humanity provides affordable homeownership opportunities for working families of moderate income in the cities of Charleston and North Charleston. Families can qualify for either new homes or home repair programs. Financial and in-kind support comes from homeowner principal mortgage payments; contributions from individuals, businesses, grants and foundations; sales from the Charleston Habitat for Humanity ReStore; and volunteer labor on our construction site.
