CHARLESTON HABITAT FOR HUMANITY DEDICATES THREE HOMES IN ONE WEEK

Charleston Habitat for Humanity (CHFH) has partnered with several local sponsors to end substandard housing in the communities of Charleston and North Charleston. CHFH is proud to announce the dedication of 3 new homes:

28 H Street, downtown Charleston sponsored by First Scots Presbyterian, will be dedicated on Sunday, June 24 at 2 pm. Members of First Scots Presbyterian Church will attend the dedication ceremony.

New Homeowner: The Davis Family

36 H Street, downtown Charleston sponsored by Piggly Wiggly Carolina Co. Inc., will be dedicated on Tuesday, June 26 at 11am. Mayor Joe Riley will attend the ceremony.

New Homeowner: The Clark Family

2168 Creighton Street, North Charleston sponsored by The I'On Group, will be dedicated on Wednesday, June 27 at 11am. This particular home was built in one week as part of the 2007 Lowcountry Builders Blitz during May 14-18, 2007. Vince Graham, founder of The I'On Group, will attend the dedication ceremony.

New Homeowner: The Major Family

Dr. Jeremy Browning, Ph. D., the Executive Director of CHFH, states "Dedicating three new homes in one week is a great accomplishment, not only for Charleston Habitat for Humanity, but for all our sponsors, volunteers and community supporters. I know that the Davis family, Clark family and the Major family will join me in expressing our deepest gratitude to everyone involved. The community has really come together to make a noticeable difference."

###

Charleston Habitat for Humanity provides affordable homeownership opportunities for working families of moderate income in the cities of Charleston and North Charleston. Families can qualify for either new homes or home repair programs. Financial and in-kind support comes from homeowner principal mortgage payments; contributions from individuals, businesses, grants and foundations; sales from the Charleston Habitat for Humanity ReStore; and volunteer labor on our construction site.
